Dear Stan:

It really was a great pleasure having a chance to sit quietly with you at CIA headquarters and discuss some problems facing our nation.

Your kindness and hospitality were appreciated and I hope I can be of help to you in the years ahead. You have a tough job but somehow I feel you will handle it extremely well.

My thanks also for the kindness you showed [redacted] who is much impressed by your organization.

Thanks again, and I look forward to seeing you soon.

With every good wish,

Sincerely yours,

John W. Wydler
Member of Congress
